DATES TO DECEMBER 30.

Washington News

WASHINGTON, Dec 23.—News from the West Indies is regarded in diplomatic circles as indicating a readiness throughout all the islands for an immediate annexation to the United States.

CHICAGO, Dec. 23.—The Times' special says the Washington papers intimate that a movement is on foot among Southern radicals to get up another Presidential convention, on the ground that the Southern States will not be represented in Congress on May 20th. The movement is said to be in the interest of Judge Chase.

The Tribune's special says the claims of private parties against the Russian Government for $5,000,000 have been presented to the Committee on Foreign Affairs by citizens of Massachusetts, who, during the Crimean war, made a contract with the Russian Minister to furnish a quantity of ammunition and 35,000 stand of arms. The contract was duly filed, but just at that time peace was declared, and Russia refused to pay the parties. They are now endeavoring to persuade our Government to withhold payment of that amount of the Alaska purchase.

The Herald's special says that prominent Senators believe the Senate will refuse to ratify the purchase of St Thomas by a large majority.

Great alarm exists in several [illegible] of North Carolina on account of assaults by armed blacks upon [illegible] whites. Prompt measures are said to be necessary to restore quiet.

Half of the force in the ordnance department of the navy yard were discharged to-day.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Grant, with the consent of the President, has suspended the order to disband the irregular militia of the district.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—The Herald's special says it is estimated that three millions of whites and blacks in the Southern States are in a starving condition.

Stanton is in Washington preparing his defense against the President's charges.

It is beyond a doubt that the President has determined to relieve Gen Pope from command of the fourth district.

The Times' special says Gen. Swayne, commanding district of Alabama, will also be removed.

Murder of a Congressman.

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—C. A. Humphrey, Representative in Congress from the 5th Ohio district, was brutally murdered on Sunday by his son, in a fit of insanity.

Democracy Looking for a Candidate.

AUBURN, N. Y., Dec. 24.—Judge Field is being canvassed as the Democratic candidate for President, on account of his war record, and his anti-test oath decision. Hancock, however, has still the inside track.

Gen. Custer's Case.

CHICAGO, Dec 28.—Gen. Custer has written a long letter defending himself from charges of which Court Martial found him guilty. He complains bitterly of the composition of the Court that tried him. Several of the members were of inferior rank, and some of them were prejudiced against him.

Army Changes.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Grant has issued orders to-day by direction of the President, relieving Gen Ord, who is directed to turn over his command to Gen. Gillmore and proceed to San Francisco to take command of the District of Columbia. Gen. McDowell is ordered to assume Ord's recent command as soon as relieved. Gen Pope has been relieved and ordered to report to headquarters of the army. Gen. Meade has been appointed Pope's successor. Gen. Swayne has been removed from the Freedmen's Bureau and ordered to rejoin his regiment.

Georgia Convention.

ATLANTA, Dec. 23.—The Convention immediately took recess till afternoon in order to give the finance committee an opportunity to negotiate a loan for the expenses of the Convention. The afternoon session was exceedingly stormy. The finance committee voted to secure a loan and reported an ordinance to authorize further effort which was defeated on the ground that nothing could be done. The report of the committee sent to Milledgeville with an order to draw $4,000 from the State Treasury says they showed the State Treasurer the ordinance of the Convention, with Gen Pope's authority and decision endorsed thereon; that the Treasurer said he must decline paying out any money on such authority, being sworn to obey the Constitution and laws of Georgia, and was bound only to pay Auditor's warrants signed by the Governor.

Alabama [illegible]

MONTGOMERY, Dec. 23.—Prominent radicals oppose the proposed Constitution. The Huntsville Advertiser (Radical) demands the re-assembling of the Convention to modify the Constitution, especially the clauses about schools, franchise and registration acts.

[illegible] in [illegible]

MEMPHIS, Dec. 22.—L. V. Martin, [illegible], shot Judge Beall twice with a revolver because the Judge refused to quash an indictment against him. The wounds are not considered fatal. Martin had been indicted for revenue frauds.

From Montana.

VIRGINIA CITY, (Montana), Dec. 26.—The Legislature adjourned sine die on Thursday.

The barometer is rising and the indications are favorable; thermometer, 30.

HELENA, (Montana), Dec. 27.—It has snowed two inches during last night. The thermometer at 1 P. M. was 13 degrees above zero.

Richards, who was wounded in a shooting affray is recovering.

From Santa Fe.

ST LOUIS, Dec. 27.—Advices from Santa Fe say Capt. Pierson, a member of the Territorial [illegible], shot and killed Judge Slough. The affair grew out of some strictures made by Pierson on Judge Slough in the Senate.

From Mexico.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Advices from the City of Mexico are to the 19th, received by way of Havana.

Much misery exists throughout the Republic in consequence of [illegible] and [illegible] following the war. A general call is made upon the government to take measures to prevent an increase of brigandage, to which many people have been compelled to resort by hunger.

Peace is re-established at Tepic. Many disturbances of tranquillity had occurred in different parts of the Republic.

Santa Anna and Mexico.

HAVANA, Dec. 25. Santa Anna denies any intention of going to Mexico.

News from Mexico of the 17th, says President Juarez was inaugurated on the previous Sunday. The Mexican Congress will remain in session three months.

The concession granted English parties to complete the Vera Cruz railroad falls to the ground.

From St. Domingo.

ST DOMINGO, Dec 20.—Cabral has been defeated, the organization of his troops being defective. The pronunciamento of the people is against him. A proclamation by the President has announced a commission to go to Washington to conclude an arrangement for the transfer of the Bay of Samana to the United States.

From the West Indies.

NEW YORK, Dec 24.—A Havana special gives advices from Hayti to the 20th. A battle had occurred between Dominicans and the Baez revolutionists. The latter were victorious. Gen. Palamone of the national army was killed. Baez has advanced his sphere of operations in consequence of this victory.

The Legislative Chambers of St. Domingo have disapproved of a loan of ten million francs recently negotiated at Paris.

It is reported from high sources that Consul Savage had received a telegram from the American consul at Santiago de Cuba, who telegraphed to Seward advising him to defer further proceedings in reference to the purchase of St Thomas. A late telegram states that well informed persons of Santiago doubt the report.

Cobrella Pronounces of [illegible], the new Captain General of Cuba, was given a magnificent reception by the foreign consuls of Havana.

Advices from Venezuela are to the sixth. The press is vehemently demanding an explanation from the Government concerning the arrest of three citizens for alleged political offenses while the country is tranquil.

HAVANA, Dec 27.—The steamship Virginia brings important news from Sisal. The revolution of Yucatan was assuming larger proportions. Santa Anna had been proclaimed Dictator by the revolutionists. He was expected hourly with men and a million of dollars.

The port and town of Sisal were in the hands of rebels, but the port was blockaded by two Mexican gun boats. No officers who had formerly served under the Emperor had arrived at Sisal. The coast of Yucatan in the vicinity of Sisal, was doubly watched to prevent the landing of troops coming from any foreign country to aid the rebellion. When the Virginia left Vera Cruz, on the 20th, the Mexican steamer Tabasco was about to sail for Sisal with an expedition to recover Mexican authority. Santa Anna is still in this city. Many [illegible] officers have arrived and all seem busily engaged.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—The Tribune's St. Thomas letter says there have been 500 shocks of earthquake felt there.

South America.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—The North American brings Rio dates to Nov 24th. War in Paraguay continues. Reports are received of several battles in which the allies were generally [illegible]. The Paraguayan works at Luyo were stormed and the garrison lost five hundred killed. Two Paraguayan steamers were destroyed and one escaped in a crippled condition.

The Peruvian exploring expedition under Admiral Tucker had ascended the rivers of [illegible] and Ucayale and were about to [illegible] into the Amazon.

The small pox has killed 2,166 people. 2,300 were killed in the town of Cuba alone. Many cases occurred among the crew of the United States steamer Pawnee at Bahia.

Anglo-Brazilian Times says. Two great victories of Brazilians over the Paraguayans renders it impossible for Lopez to longer contest for the possession of the open country with the powerful allied cavalry. It thinks that Lopez is entirely cut off from supplies.

French Affairs.

NEW YORK Dec 25.—The steamer City of Chicago arrived from Europe.

In France, the Legislatif debate on the German policy of Napoleon, was quite animated. The opposition were extremely bold. Pages asserted that France was left alone in Europe and every nationality against her.

Miscellaneous

BUFFALO Dec 23.—The funeral of the unrecognized victims of the railroad disaster occurred at the rail road depot to day, an immense concourse attended their bodies to the vault at St. Paul's Church.

NEW YORK, Dec 23.—The excitement at St Thomas occasioned by the late earthquakes still continued when the steamer left on the 16th inst. Another heavy shock was experienced on the 12th.

NEW YORK, Dec 25.—Haytien news of to day says Salnave has made a general and indiscriminate conscription. It is said the Cape Haytien government has been placed in charge of Gen. Ulysses Megra, who rules with a despotic hand.

The Herald's special denies that the withholding an appropriation for the purchase of St. Thomas has had a dubious effect on Danish commissioners, one of whom has returned to St Thomas and the other is about going to Europe.

NEW YORK, Dec 26.—The [illegible] boat with parties from the burned steamer Raleigh arrived at Charleston; only 14 are now missing. The loss by the burning of the Raleigh is estimated at $350,000 to $400,000. The vessel was worth $175,000.

A beard also diminishes by one-half the refreshment derived by a well regulated mind from the act of washing the face.

Cong[illegible] and the Treaty Making Power.

The "Radical" Cong[illegible] obtains another terrible [illegible] at the hands of the Herald. The [illegible], which provokes this new philippic is the action of a few R[illegible]blican members of the House in [illegible] the appropriation for the purchase of Alaska. We [illegible] doubt that their opposition to the [illegible]islation had its origin in a good motive, viz: A desire to retrench the expenses of the Government in every possible way, and to reduce the public debt instead of augmenting it; but we think these members in this case acted under a [illegible] view, as the territory purchased will be worth to the United States a far greater sum than has been paid for it. Therefore though the debt is [illegible] and the taxes are heavy, we believe it was good policy to lay this further charge [illegible] the [illegible], in view of the benefits which are [illegible] from the acquisition. That [illegible] of political wisdom, Edmund Burke, tells us that in a state, "mere parsimony is not economy. It may, or may not, be a part of economy, [illegible] to circumstances." In this case it is plainly evident that it was not a part of economy; and while we accord to these members of C[illegible] who opposed the appropriation the credit of right motives, we are sure the country at large will approve of the purchase. But we [illegible] not yet touched the matter which gives the He[illegible] [illegible] for its recent animadversions. [illegible] that the action of these members [illegible] violation of the national faith and nullification of the Constitution, the paramount [illegible] of the land." B[illegible] "the Constitution [illegible] the Pres[illegible], by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, the sole treaty making power"; and the House of Representatives therefore have no constitutional [illegible] on the subject of treaties, [illegible] for carrying a treaty [illegible] All [illegible] made under the authority of the United States,—that is to say, by the Pres[illegible] with the advice and consent of the [illegible] we are reminded by the Herald, the [illegible] law of the land; and that paper tells [illegible] "are as binding on the action of [illegible] any law is on any private citizen of the United States." "Congress," it continues, "has the [illegible] to refuse appropriations for any of the [illegible] expenditures of the Government, but [illegible] regarding treaty obligations [illegible] with [illegible] it not only repu[illegible] but writes 'perfidy' upon [illegible]. Now we know that [illegible] the [illegible] this opinion assumes to [illegible] authority but one. The [illegible] that party, is popularly [illegible]. It happens that this [illegible] was [illegible] by Mr. Jefferson [illegible] in 1796, and [illegible] positively contrary to the [illegible] of the Herald. After the [illegible] had been negotiated by [illegible] and approved by the Senate [illegible] Party, then strong in Congress, [illegible] the [illegible] of the House of [illegible] to its validity. [illegible] that "when a treaty [illegible] any of the subjects submitted [illegible] to the power of Congress [illegible] for its execution on a law [illegible] as to the expediency or [illegible] which law the House has a right [illegible] it or not as they may [illegible], and "all the [illegible] this [illegible] with the [illegible] interest the [illegible] and stimulated his partiality in maintaining their de[illegible]. In [illegible], 1796, he wrote to Monroe: (see Jeff[illegible] Works, Volume IV, page 134) "[illegible] the [illegible] of doctrine to be that [illegible] the P[illegible] and Senate have the [illegible], yet whenever [illegible] matters confided by the [illegible] branches of the Legislature [illegible] will be requisite to con[illegible] and that the House of Representatives, as one [illegible] of the Legislature, are [illegible] the act or refuse it, governing [illegible] own judgment whether it is for the [illegible] establishments to let the treaty go into [illegible]." On the 27th of March, 1796, he [illegible] to Madison: "According to the rule [illegible] by usage and common sense, of [illegible] part of the Constitution by another, the [illegible] on which the President and Senate may [illegible]ly act by treaty are much reduced, but the [illegible] on which they may act with the [illegible] of the Legislature is large enough; and I see no [illegible] in rendering their sanction [illegible] much harm in annihilating the [illegible] except as to making [illegible]." S[illegible] were the opinions of Jefferson and his [illegible] as regarded the agency of the House in the matter of making treaties and carrying them into [illegible]. They maintained that the House had a right to participate in the treaty-[illegible] struggle [illegible] had been [illegible] in Congress since the formation of the [illegible] was had over this very [illegible].

The Herald, [illegible] stating that the members of [illegible] who opposed the appropriation for the [illegible] of Alaska voted to write "perfidy" on the [illegible], adds: "A majority of the [illegible] here who cast their votes upon [illegible] to endorse this infamy, and [illegible] but for the [illegible] upon all our [illegible] the honor of [illegible]." Let us turn to history [illegible] to see how Democratic members of Congress have heretofore acted under similar circumstances. [illegible] reported in the House "that it is expedient to pass laws necessary for carrying the Jay Treaty into effect, (April 30, 1796) the vote stood 51 ayes to 48 noes, every member belonging to the then rising Democratic party, including Mr. Madison, voting in the negative. Every member of the party voted to endorse what the Herald calls an "infamy." Every [illegible] voted to write 'perfidy' on the national [illegible]." This is the manner in which Democrats on former occasions have "stood by the [illegible] and the honor of their country."

Thus it will be seen that the few Republican members of Cong[illegible] who voted against acts of legislation necessary to carry the treaty for the purchase of Alaska into effect, simply did what every member of Congress associated with the rising Democratic party did in respect to the treaty with England in 1796. The "Radicals" whom the Her[illegible] [illegible] Madison had voted the doctrine the[illegible] was simply the doctrine of Jefferson. The Republican party does not ap[illegible] such shallow scribblers as the editor of the Herald that they cannot accuse these Republican members of Congress of having violated the Constitution by their action in regard to the Russian treaty, without making a like accusation against the founder of their own party.

"What," says Pope, "must be the priest where the monkey is a god?" What must be the tool and drudge of a party, of which the heads are such men as Whiteaker, Ben. Hayden, and others who lead the Democratic party of Oregon? This drudge, though grossly ignorant of the political history of the country, as we have often had occasion to show, assumes the dignity and importance of a wise and experienced political teacher; delivers his opinions with awful gravity or arraigns his political opponents on charges of infidelity to the Constitution; discourses to those who are so unfortunate as to be his readers upon constitutional law and writes ponderous leaders on subjects which he knows nothing about, making it apparent that his ignorance is equalled by nothing but his assurance, and his blundering stupidity by nothing but his egotism and vanity. But he is a very proper drudge for a party which derives its greatest strength everywhere from ignorance and prejudice. In this instance we have another of the many signal proofs he has given of his total want of acquaintance with the country's political history. He even knows nothing of the history of his own party, as is clearly shown by his condemnation of a course of action which was once a measure of his party and which was supported by such men as Jefferson and Madison. Of course the "journeyman editor" is too old to learn anything now; but it is very clear that the perusal of even a school history of the United States, if he could be induced to perform the labor of reading so extensive a book, would add materially to his present stock of political knowledge.

Is Grant Reticent?

J. W. Fo[illegible], in a letter from Washington to the Philadelphia Press, furnishes some of the hitherto unpublished utterances of Gen. Grant which will enable the country to judge whether or not the General was unnecessarily reticent when he had occasion to speak officially. On the 13th of [illegible], 1864, he wrote thus to E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War:

> We ought to have the whole number of men called for by the President in the shortest possible time. Prompt action in filling our armies will have more effect upon the enemy than a victory over them. They profess to believe, and make their men believe, there is such a party in the North in favor of recognizing Southern independence that the draft cannot be enforced. Let them be undeceived. Deserters come into our lines daily, who tell us that the men are nearly universally tired of the war, and that desertions would be much more frequent, but that they believe peace will be negotiated after the fall elections. The enforcement of the draft, and the prompt filling up of our armies, will save the shedding of blood to an immense degree.
> U. S. GRANT, Lieutenant General.

In January and February, 1866, the Richmond Examiner, having published several articles calculated to [illegible] alive the spirit of the Confederate [illegible], Gen. Grant sent the following order to be [illegible]:

> HEADQ'RS ARMIES OF THE UNITED STATES,
> WASHINGTON, February 17, 1866.
>
> You will please send to these headquarters as soon as practicable, and from time to time thereafter, such copies of the [illegible] as published in your [illegible] limits of disloyalty and hostility to the Government, or to any of its branch[illegible], and state whether such paper is habitual in its utterance of such sentiments. The persistent publication of articles calculated to keep up hostility of feeling between the people of the different sections of the country cannot be tolerated. This information is called for with a view to their suppression, which will be done at these headquarters only.
>
> By command of Lieutenant General Grant,
> T. S. BOWERS,
> Assistant Adjutant General.

Shortly after this, the Examiner was suppressed. Pollard, the editor, posted off to Washington to procure, if possible, a revocation of the order of [illegible], and laid before Gen. Grant a written [illegible] of [illegible] action. On the back of the application Gen. Grant endorsed this answer:

> The course of the Examiner, in every number which I have seen, has been such as to foster and increase the ill-feeling toward the Government of the United States by the discontented portion of the Southern people. I believe it to be for the best interests of the whole people, North and South, to suppress such utterances wherever the power exists to do so. The power certainly does exist when martial law prevails, and will be exercised. Reluctant as I was to pursue this [illegible] I have felt it my duty to pursue it in this instance; and, as much as I dislike to interfere with the interests of individuals, I would deem it improper and mischievous in tendency to revoke the order for the suppression of the Richmond Examiner at this time.
>
> U. S. GRANT,
> Lieutenant General.

Pollard appealed from General Grant to the President, and after pledging himself and his paper to support Johnson's Administration, he obtained permission to renew the publication of the Examiner. He thus told of the success of his mission in an article over his own name:

> I know nothing of General Grant's order for the release of the [illegible] until I read it in the papers. I saw that officer but once, when he refused emphatically to revoke the order for the seizure of the office. It was evident I had nothing to hope from him, for he said to me expressly, that if he had the authority, he would that day suppress the New York News, the Cincinnati Enquirer and the Chicago Times, adding that the "Copperhead papers of the North," as he designated them, were doing quite as much harm as the papers in the South. Deriving no satisfaction from him, I was forced to appeal to the President, giving him the pledge contained in the letter above. It was written during my last interview with the President, and in his own office.
> To his kind and considerate hearing, and to his sense of justice, I feel that I owe the restoration of my paper. Without attempting to enter upon the details of my interview, I may say, with propriety that enough transpired to convince me that the President is the true friend of the South, and that it is the duty of our people, as it shall be our pleasure in the future, to extend to him a cordial and generous support.

If this is "reticence" on the part of General Grant, we guess it would not absolutely disqualify him from becoming the leader of the Republican party in the campaign of 1868.

THE INTERNATIONAL COIN.—A Washington dispatch of the 1st December gives the following:

A specimen of the proposed international coin of twenty-five francs, recently struck by the government of France, was presented this morning to the President by Mr. Samuel B. Ruggles, delegate of the United States to the International Monetary Conference, who has just returned from Paris. The new coin is forty-four millimetres in [illegible], very slightly exceeding that of the present half eagle of the United States and the sovereign of Great Britain. It bears on its obverse the conjoint inscription, "five dollars twenty-five francs," and is a type of the proposed monetary union of the three nations. If adopted by the Governments of the United States and Great Britain, this international coin, bearing the denominations and emblems of the respective nations, will circulate side by side in perfect equality, and without impediment, throughout the world. The official report of Mr. Ruggles, fully embodying the facts needed for the careful consideration of the subject will probably be sent to Congress during the coming week.

Since the election in California, Ohio and Pennsylvania, the Copperheads don't recognize the President. That is always the way, when low bred men get up in the world, the first thing they do is to cut their vulgar relations.

STATE ITEMS.

The Grant Club at Albany numbers one hundred members.

The cases of many persons who voted illegally at the late election at Albany—Democrats, of course—will be brought before the Circuit Court of that county at its next term. All the imported voters who carried the city over to the Democracy will be called to a strict account.

The Albany Democrat says: "The last Journal asserts that the Courts have repeatedly decided that national bonds cannot be taxed. We deny this and ask for the proof." Can it be possible, after all that has been said on this subject, that Abbott is still in ignorance? Had he been in Beriah's place, we should have succeeded in enlightening him. We say this with confidence, for for it is impossible for him to be duller than Beriah.

The Copperheads of Albany have adopted a "platform," one resolution of which declares that "United States Bonds should be taxed." There is no wonder that difficulties beset the country when there is such ignorance among a large party of the fundamental principles of the Government and of the policy which has been followed ever since it was founded. Even the negroes of the South know better than to put in their platforms such a declaration as has been put forth by the "enlightened Albany Democracy."

At a public installation of officers elect and appointed of Temple Lodge, No. 7, F. and A. M., for the ensuing Masonic Year, the following persons were duly installed by P. M. and P. G. S. Warden A. Van Dusen: J. G. Hustler, W. M.; P. E. Ferchen, S. W.; J. W. Gearhart, J. W.; J. Badollet, Treasurer; H. S. Aiken, Sec'y; C. Linenweber, S. D.; J. Barrows, J. D.; W. Ellis, Tyler. On motion it was Resolved, That the thanks of this Lodge are due and are hereby tendered to the Trustees of the Congregational Church in this place for the use of their building; to the Rev. D. B. Gray for his assistance in the devotional part of our ceremonies, and also to the choir, who so kindly proffered and ably executed the music adapted to the occasion. After the installation an address was delivered by P. M., J. W. Moffitt.

COOS BAY.—The Roseburg paper has the following:

Probably no portion of Southern Oregon has a better prospect for a prosperous future than the country bordering on the waters of Coos Bay. At the present time its appearance indicates the energy of its population. Every settler is doing something, as nature has furnished materials in abundance, upon which labor may be bestowed with profit.

Empire City, the county seat of Coos county, is situated on the south side of the Bay, about five miles from the ocean; it is a small commercial village, which presents the lively appearance that only accompanies thrift. At this point the lumbering establishment of H. H. Luce gives employment to a large number of men, and furnishes cargoes for the several vessels which run to that wharf. Mr. Luce is also engaged in the construction of a light draft steamer, of a beautiful model, appropriate for use upon the bay, or other inland waters.

North Bend, six miles further up the Bay, on the same side, is a place of an inviting appearance. The business of this point consists in Simpson's lumbering establishment, and a few neat private dwellings complete the picture.

Marshfield is the name given to the next landing three or four miles further up the Bay. Here a dozen new buildings have sprung up within the past year, including Pershbaker's steam saw mill, which has been lately completed. A steamer is being built at this place, and a new coal bank has been opened by Mr. Pershbaker, which it is thought, will be a steady and permanent source of revenue to its enterprising owner.

The coal mines owned and worked by Flanagan and Mann are a short distance above Marshfield and are said to be valuable property.

The political aspect of Coos county is unchanged. The cry of a "reaction" with which the Democracy are laboring to draw the wavering into their ranks, is unbased; and the county as usual will poll a large Republican majority in June next.

FROM IDAHO.

The Boise Statesman, of the 28th ult., has the following:

Information wanted of the brother or relatives of John T. Welch, deceased, who was robbed and murdered by highwaymen while on his way from Lemhi to this city, on the 15th inst. He is supposed to have relatives living near Oregon City, Oregon. Any person knowing of their whereabouts will please communicate the facts to this office, as Mr. John S. Ramsy, who was with Mr. W. at the time of his murder, is desirous of learning where they are. Oregon papers will please copy.

"Lo" visited Desert Station on the Salt Lake road, fifteen miles beyond Snake river, on Christmas night. They took two stage teams belonging to Wells, Fargo & Co. out of the stables and shot at the station keeper, wounding him in the hand. He thinks there were six or seven of the Indians.

Mr. W. R. Bishop, Territorial Controller, has, we understand, placed his resignation in the hands of the Governor, to take effect on and after the 1st day of January, 1868. It is understood that Mr. Daniel Cram will be appointed to fill the vacancy.

"RADICALISM" OF THE COMMON LAW.—In a case which was recently tried in Kentucky, involving the questions of citizenship and civil rights, Justice Swayne of the United States Circuit Court, used the following language:

All persons born in the allegiance of the King are natural born subjects, and all persons born in the allegiance of the United States are natural born citizens. Birth and allegiance go together. Such is the rule of the common law; and it is the common law of this country as well as of England. There are two exceptions, and only two, to the universality of its application. The children of embassadors are, in theory, born in the allegiance of the Powers the embassadors represent, and slaves, in legal contemplation, are property and not persons. [2. Kent's Com. (last ed.) 1; Calvin's Case, 7 Coke 1; Black Com. 366; Lynch vs. Clark, 1 Sandf. Chy Rep., 139.] The common law made no distinction on account of race or color. None is now made in England nor in any other Christian country of Europe.

The case in which this decision was rendered came up in the following manner: A number of constitutional Democrats wishing to vindicate their claim to the title of the "superior race," and resolving to show their abhorrence of "nigger equality," broke into the house of Nancy Talbot, a colored woman in Nelson county, destroyed the furniture and committed other acts of violence. They were convicted on the testimony of colored witnesses. A motion being made to arrest judgment on the ground of the inadmissibility of negro testimony, the case went to the U. S. Court. It will be seen that not only the civil rights act, but the common law interposes against these Democratic practises. The general opinion among the slave-whippers of Kentucky undoubtedly has been that the Republicans were the chaps who had made all this trouble about the civil rights of negroes but they have official notification now that the common law, which is considerably older than the Republican party, is just as radical as the "Radicals." We hope the notification will do good.

Gen. James Shields, ex-United States Senator from Illinois, is now a quiet farmer in Carroll Co., Mo.

RECREATION AND AMUSEMENT.—It is [illegible] that mortals should have some amusement, and since our city is not blessed with an elegant theatre, or some place of innocent amusement, it is the duty of every man to see that his acquaintances coming to our city should at least be pleased, and how can you please them better than by taking them to KOHN & FISHEL'S, No. 91 Front street, to buy one of those handsome suits they keep for sale.

Buchtel's Photograph Gallery is the only establishment in Oregon that is thoroughly prepared to do all the different styles of work in the art. Photographs from card to life size. The new cabinet cards, &c., &c. Small pictures enlarged (retouched in India ink—painted in water-colors or oil by Mrs. S. J. Rumsey. Pictures that are fading can be reproduced in this way. All negatives taken in this gallery will be carefully preserved, and additional copies had. I have now on hand a very large collection of negatives, the names of which are recorded alphabetically in a book for that purpose that can be seen in the reception room.

FROM ASTORIA.—We have a letter from Astoria by the [illegible] of Saturday, written by a correspondent from whom we hope to hear again. We take from it the following extracts:

Having been at Astoria during the late holidays, after an absence of several years, I take pleasure in devoting a few moments to giving a brief notice of the many substantial improvements which have been made in and about Astoria during the past few years. Business seems to be flourishing; real estate is held firm, and the citizens here seem to be confident that the future, not far distant, will unfold something of great importance to the place. It is not, however, my purpose to give your readers, at this time, the [illegible], or to speak of the natural advantages over all other places in the State for a sea port where the commerce should be landed, from thence distributed, or conveyed to its destination. Suffice it to say that Oregon should maintain and import her goods direct, instead of enriching California. When shall we arouse from our lethargy? The Masonic fraternity held a public installation of officers in the Congregational Church on the 27th ult. before a large and intelligent audience, upon which occasion Capt. P. G. Hustler received the honor of being placed in the chair of Grand Master, and other officers were installed in their respective positions by their worthy brother, A. Van Dusen, closing with a most interesting and able oration on behalf of masonry [illegible]. In the evening the fraternity gave a [illegible] ball, where the beauty and fashion of the place assembled to "trip the light, fantastic toe" till the "wee small hours of morn," and seemingly not satisfied, [illegible] to dance the Old Year out and step into the New. The Astorians are [illegible] a social, lively and [illegible] people, and will join with me in wishing your [illegible] a "Happy New Year," and [illegible] after the eventful [illegible] kindly greeting to all, earnestly hoping that the young [illegible] have had their little stockings full of good things and that the gimcracks of every kind distended their [illegible] in every chimney corner. [illegible] greeting, we will [illegible] jolly old elf." The vacation for the [illegible] will not be lost. They will all study the better when they resume their toil, and the remembrance [illegible] twice as [illegible]. The [illegible] to the tedious days of winter, and [illegible] that tends to lighten, relieve and give cheerfulness to the winter of life needs to [illegible] "Happy New Year" to [illegible] they all [illegible] much of life; little may they feel the weight of [illegible], and [illegible] may the breath [illegible] blow over them; let [illegible], in equality, long [illegible] peace, [illegible] happiness, and heaven at last be the portion of all whose eyes shall rest upon these [illegible].

[illegible].—In the Owyhee [illegible] of [illegible], we find the following: "The ball for the benefit of the [illegible] ... children and old folks. It was a [illegible] affair; joy and gladness [illegible]. It was [illegible] sight to see the little youths and [illegible] in the graceful [illegible] of the [illegible]. [illegible] in the [illegible] of tracking [illegible]. What next? Perhaps a cock fight or a [illegible] bait—for the [illegible] of the Sunday [illegible] in which it will be [illegible] to see the little youths and maidens [illegible] the game cocks [illegible] go down under a bully and [illegible] blow from [illegible], it was [illegible] for the private [illegible] of Silver City that the Sunday school got home from the [illegible] in the nick of time to [illegible] of Silver City [illegible]."

[illegible] with the condition of public [illegible], as indicated by the following extract from the Boise [illegible] of the 28th: Mungan, Ma How, Ching Hay, et. al., (to-wit: all the China [illegible] of Boise City), vs. John Dutel, Sheriff and [illegible] tax collector of Ada county. This was a case to [illegible] the sheriff as tax collector from collecting fifty [illegible] per month on a license for [illegible] brothels or bawdy houses, as provided by law. The motion for an injunction was [illegible] at chambers [illegible] on Thursday. The case was very fully [illegible] Curtis for de[illegible] the injunction. The sheriff will therefore proceed with the sale [illegible] license be forthcoming [illegible] Paris.

[illegible] from the [illegible] of Saturday: On New Year's Eve the old [illegible] saw mill on Mill creek, was set on fire and destroyed. The loss did not amount to much as the machinery had long since been removed and nothing remained but [illegible]. [illegible] time in September last, [illegible] Davis, formerly a [illegible], came to this city from Camp Watson in charge of a team, which he put up at a stable, since which time nothing has been seen or heard of him. Any information of his whereabouts will be [illegible]. The young men of this city have organized a society called the Dalles [illegible] Club. It will be conducted on the [illegible] Turn Verein principle......Mr. Jacob Fritz informs us that snow fell to the depth of ten inches during twenty-four hours of part of Sunday and Monday last......[illegible], lately in the employ of O. M. Lash, [illegible]. If he is in this section of country, he will find out something to his advantage by dropping us a line, or calling at our office. This man had one of his hands shot some years ago by Indians. We notice the arrival of our old friend Captain [illegible], who has just returned from the Buckle mill and mines, and [illegible] very flattering in regard to the success [illegible] river, which he says will be very extensive, and [illegible] ditch, now [illegible], will open a [illegible] mining ground than the Boise [illegible]. There has also been lately discovered valuable placer and quartz mines in the Powder [illegible] mountains, and the little town of Baker City is doing a lively business in consequence thereof.

THE OREGON CITY SCHOOL.—The Enterprise of [illegible] the following report of the City School as prepared by Mr. S. D. Pope, the Principal, for the term ending Dec. 24, 1867:

[illegible] Department.—Total number in attendance, 51; daily average, 45. Roll of Honor—Hattie Barclay, John [illegible], Katie Barclay, Mollie Barlow, Ione [illegible], Annie Winston, Ellen Safferrans, Wm. Warren, [illegible] Hall, Ocean [illegible], Edward [illegible].

[illegible] Department—Total number in attendance, 66; daily average, 51. Roll of Honor—Mary [illegible], Mildred Kendall, Mary DeLin, Lenora Reed, George Broughton, Lewis Logan, Eva Cooper, Nettie Post, [illegible] Taylor, [illegible] Fish, William [illegible], Francis Miller, Wm. Wilson.

Primary Department—Total number in attendance, 63; daily average, 50. Roll of Honor—Belle Potter, [illegible] Barlow, Roxana Fish, [illegible] Pambrun, Sarah [illegible].

Aggregate number in attendance, 180; aggregate daily attendance, 146.

WOOL FROM CALIFORNIA.—The last steamer brought 40,000 pounds of wool from San Francisco, for the Oregon City Woolen Manufacturing Company. Upon enquiry as to the reason for importing wool into the State, we learn that the company has been forced to buy outside of Oregon by the views of wool raisers here as to the prices they can or ought to get. They offered all through the country, twenty cents per pound but were unable to buy, the farmers being evidently prepared that they could get twenty-five cents, or more. The company could not afford to pay such prices while manufactured goods were so low, and still tending downward. Applying in the California market, they had no difficulty in buying the same sort of staple, for 16½@17c per pound. The shipment in [illegible] cost, laid down at the mill at Oregon City, about [illegible] per pound. This, of course, is a very material saving to the company, when the immense amount of material used, is considered.

PASSENGERS FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The [illegible] Ajax, Wm. Metzger, Commander, sailed for San Francisco, at 2 o'clock P. M. Saturday, with the following list of passengers: Gov. Geo. L. Woods, W. K. Leveridge, P. J. Martin, Mrs. Caldwell and child, R. Guy, McClellan, J. Long, G. Johnson, F. Wallace, Caleb Row, Jas. Franklin, W. H. Fuller, C. W. Brown, A. J. Hubler, M. B. France, wife and two children, Mrs. J. A. Ripperton, I. S. [illegible], Jos. Kifelt, S. O. Yeaba, J. M. Churchill, Miss Boyle, David Hedrick, Mrs C. Smith and son, M. M. Durst, D. Darnold, B. G. Severance, C. M. Howard, H. A. Seigfried (W. F. & Co's messenger,) and 15 in the steerage.

FREIGHT FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamship Ajax was loaded very hurriedly, freight being taken on board till almost the moment of sailing; hence, the freight clerk was unable to make out the usual freight list for publication. Her cargo was mostly made up by the [illegible] of Allen & Lewis, Everding & [illegible], Savier & Co., and McCraken, Merrill & Co, and [illegible] largely of flour and wheat, there being of the former, as near as we can learn, over six hundred tons. We shall probably obtain the full and correct list by the return of the Oregon from Astoria, Tuesday evening.

TURN VEREIN ELECTION.—The Turn Verein Society of Portland held their election for officers for the ensuing year, yesterday, with the following result: F. S. [illegible], President; A. Haas, Secretary; N. A. Haakel, Treasurer; Chas. King, 1st Turnwarden; L. N. Walter, 2d Turnwarden; J. D. [illegible], Property Warden; D. H. Hildburg, Singwarden; J. Rosenfeld, Turnfather.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—Under an order of the court lots one and two in block four, in Couch's Addition, on which stands the barrel factory of Messrs. McCraken, Merrill & Co., were sold on Saturday by the [illegible] in the case of Richards vs. McCraken. The grounds were bid in by Mr. W. K. Leveridge, of [illegible], for $10,000, cash down.

ANNUAL BALL.—The Washington Guards have resolved to give a ball, on the 22d February, in accordance with their usual custom, and preparations for it are already [illegible] way. Their annual reunions have [illegible] been [illegible] affairs, and the approaching one will [illegible] be in no respect behind its predecessors.

THE RIVER.—On Saturday the river was so high that the Reliance, above the falls, was unable to descend into the basin, in consequence of which no freight came through. Passengers were compelled to climb the bluff between Canemah and the basin, the road being overflowed. Last evening the river was falling a little.

THE PORTLAND ACADEMY.—The holiday vacation of this school has closed and studies are to be resumed this morning. The classes will be reorganized to-day so that pupils can be received for the half term. Mr. Thos. H. Crawford, the new teacher, sometime since announced, has arrived and will assume his position to-day.

FREIGHT FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The [illegible] will leave this [illegible] for St. Helens. She has now on board 144 hlf bbls salmon, 75 bbls do, 23 bbls and 17 kegs crude red paint, 64,000 staves, and 17 bbls herrings.

ARRESTED.—A man named Phelps was arrested on Saturday by Marshal Jacobi, upon a warrant sent by telegraph from Salem. There is a charge against him of stealing a considerable sum of money. Phelps, with his wife and family, had taken passage on the Ajax, intending to go to San Francisco.

COMING HOME.—Mr. E. N. Cooke, State Treasurer, with his wife, is announced among the passengers who left New York on the 11th of December for the Pacific coast.

NEW VOLUME.—The Pacific Christian Advocate of this city commenced its 14th volume with the issue of last Saturday.

TREASURE.—The receipts during last week, by Wells, Fargo & Co., amounted to only about $50,000.

NEW LAW FIRM.—By a new advertisement in our columns this morning, it will be seen that Judge Page, of this city, and J. W. Stevens, Esq., late of Walla Walla, have associated themselves in law partnership. Judge Page has a wide reputation as a successful practitioner, and his junior partner is said to be a young man of fine legal attainments. The firm will be a strong and doubtless a successful one.

DR. C. W. COOL,

DENTIST.

THOSE WHO DESIRE FIRST-CLASS DENTAL SERVICES might do well to give him a call. He is making a NEW AND IMPROVED VULCANITE PLATE. The nature of his improvement consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold; it makes the plate twice as strong and one-third times thinner than the common vulcanite plate. It also prevents the acids of the mouth from roughing the plate, and from turning it black, which is a common occurrence. One half of the common vulcanite plates turn black after being in use a short time, particularly where tobacco is used for smoking. His new style of plate admits of a very fine finish on the concave or palate surface. His office is the only place where such work can be had. The improvement is his own invention, for which he has received, December 3d, 1867, a patent from the United States Patent Office. He has been making this style of work for the last two and a half years, and has specimens of the work which can be seen at his office. This work has given satisfaction in every case.

OFFICE—temporarily at the private parlor of the New Columbian Hotel. dec31-3ptf.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

THE UNIVERSAL REMEDY FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL COMPLAINTS!

At this period there are but few of the human race unacquainted with the merits of the Pain Killer; but while some extol it as a liniment, they know but little of its power in easing pain when taken internally, while others use it internally with great success, but are equally ignorant of its healing virtues when applied externally. We therefore wish to say to all that it is equally successful whether used internally or externally, and it stands alone, unrivalled by all the great catalogue of Family Medicines, and its sale is universal and immense. The demand for it from India and other foreign countries is equal to the demand at home, and it has become known in those far off places by its merits.

Just Cause for being Alarmed.—When a Cough has been running for a long time, and you begin to feel a pain setting in upon your lungs, attended with tightness across the chest, it is high time that you should awaken to the danger of your disease, which is fast running into Consumption. Now, before it is too late, use ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM, which will cure the disease, and all will be well with you. For sale by the Dealers in Family Medicines generally.

MI-

Unlucky Vulcan! Venus tricked him:
A fashion with the ladies this is,
I'm not amiss; but I'm a victim
To a whole host of wicked misses.

Miss Fit supplies my boots and coats,
And vain is all my indignation;
My cashbook and my gold and notes
Are managed by Miss Calculation.

Miss Take has played me many a trick;
Miss Spell will always write my letters;
Miss Trust declines to give me tick;
Miss Manage lets off all my debtors.

Miss Print is wont to spoil my rhyme—
A very wicked habit is her's,
And if they quote me any time,
Miss Quote's the girl to use the scissors.

When Christmas bumpers overflow,
And bells ring loud from many a minster,
I can't get near to Miss L. To.
Save with some very ancient spinster

Well, easy 'tis down hill to glide,
And vain the Parce to importune;
So let me wed my bonny bride—
A charming child she is—Miss Fortune.

[From the Mountaineer.]

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.

At the last term of the Supreme Court of Oregon, by order duly entered of record, I was appointed as Official Reporter of the decisions, opinions and rulings of that Court. A number of former opinions had been published by State authority—to some extent informally and incorrectly—and a number of opinions given years ago were omitted. To prevent the recurrence of such mistakes, as well as to collect and preserve the rulings of the Court on questions of practice and construction of statutes, I propose to publish them for the benefit of courts, attorneys and clients, in the Weekly Mountaineer, published at Dalles City. They will be prepared as formerly, as though made for a volume of Oregon Reports. So far as is possible I shall correct the "proof-sheets" and save the publisher of the newspaper from responsibility of mistakes. At the rate of the present accumulation of opinions of the Court it will be a long time before it would be proper to publish the second volume of Oregon Reports, so it would be well for attorneys to improve the present opportunity for obtaining the authorized rules and opinions of our highest judicial tribunal.

J. G. WILSON, Reporter.

[These decisions will be published in the OREGONIAN as fast as they appear.—ED. OREGONIAN.]

Elihu Lindley, Appellant, vs. M. and E. Wallis, Respondents—Appeal from Lane county.

Service of notice of Appeal—Time for filing transcript—Extension of time for such filing.

The sheriff of Lane county served the notice of appeal in this cause and made return thereof as follows:

"I, Joseph Meador, Sheriff of Lane county, Oregon, served the within notice of appeal by delivering a copy thereof prepared and certified to by me, and by Attorney for appellant, to Emeline Wallis, one of the respondents—and by leaving a copy thereof, prepared and certified in like manner, at the residence of Matthew Wallis, the other respondent, with a white member of his family, over the age of 14 years—all of which was done in Lane county, Oregon, this 29th day of April, 1867." (Signed,)

Kelsay & Walton, for appellant.

Ellsworth & Dorris, for respondent.

BY THE COURT.—Respondents moved to dismiss the appeal for want of sufficient service; motion denied as to Emeline Wallis; and, upon counter motion of appellant, leave was given to amend the return to make it conform with the fact as to the time of day when service is alleged to have been made upon Matthew Wallis.

[NOTE.—The Court affirmed certain rulings and constructions of law heretofore made, in addition to the 4th, which is peculiarly in this case.—REP.]

1. That an appeal having been perfected in the Court below prior to the first day of a term of this Court, the transcript must be filed in this Court before the close of the second day of the term, or be deemed abandoned.

2. In case there is not time to complete the transcript, and file it within the time prescribed, an extension of time may be obtained by proper application to the Circuit Judge, or to the Supreme Court.

3. The application for extension of time, for completing and filing the transcript, must be made within the time prescribed by law for the party to comply with its requirements.

4. The service of notice of appeal may be made personally on the party, or upon his attorney of record residing within the county where the trial was had. Outside of the county the service can only be made upon the party.

5. When the service of notice is by leaving a copy at the office of an attorney, or at the residence of the party, the return must show that the service was made between the hours fixed by statute, in addition to the other prescribed requisites.

6. The return of such service of notice of appeal may be in accordance with the provisions of title 3, p. 138, of the Code.

Wm. H. Coffin, appellant, vs. Henry C. Coulson, respondent—Appeal from Multnomah county.

Payment of costs—kinds of money applicable thereto.

At the November term 1866 of the Circuit Court of Multnomah county, Mitchell & Dolph obtained a judgment against Coffin. After giving notice of an appeal, Coffin applied to Coulson, the Clerk of said Court, for a transcript in the case, at the time tendering to him payment for making the same—the tender was made in legal currency. Coulson refused to take that kind of money, and declined to prepare the transcript unless the charges therefor were paid in coin. Coffin applied to the Circuit Judge for a writ of peremptory mandamus, directed to the Clerk, requiring him to make and deliver the transcript. The Judge, at the hearing, denied the writ, and dismissed the petition. Coffin appealed.

[illegible] for appellant.

Mitchell & Dolph, for respondent.

BY THE COURT.—With the exception of paying and satisfying the debts provided for in the act commonly known as the "Specific Contract Law," we know of no distinctions of the value or uses of the different kinds of money. In the Specific Contract Law express exception is made of the payment of costs, and while the "debt" is to be discharged in the kind of money specified, costs follow the general rule. The fees before us does not come within any of the exceptions. The fees of office are satisfied when proper payment is made in any of the kinds of money recognized by law. The tender was good.

The judgment below is therefore reversed, and writ ordered.

Jas. N. Dolph, Respondent, vs. John and Susannah Nickum, Appellants—Appeal from Multnomah county.

Notice of Appeal—Proper service Contents—Statement of errors.

The Sheriff of Multnomah county made return of service of notice of appeal, thus:

"I hereby certify that I served the within notice, within said State and county, on the 23d day of February, 1867, on the within named J. N. Dolph, by leaving a copy, prepared and certified to by me as Sheriff, in a conspicuous place in his office in the city of Portland, said county and State, between the hours of 6 A. M. and 9 P. M. of said day." (Signed)

[illegible] for appellants.

Mitchell & Dolph, counsel for respondent.

BY THE COURT.—Respondent moved to dismiss the appeal for want of proper service of notice in this, that the return does not show that there was no person in said office with whom the copy might have been left. Upon cross motion of appellants, leave was granted to amend the return in that respect to conform to the facts. The notice of appeal and certificate contained the following statement of errors relied upon to reverse the judgment:

"1st. Because it is contrary to law.

"2d. Because it is contrary to evidence.

"3d. Because it is based upon evidence improperly admitted and considered by the Court—duly excepted to by appellants."

Appellants asked leave to amend the statement as to first and second heads—which application was denied.

The Code, sec. 527, p. 289, provides that the notice of appeal "shall contain the certificate of an attorney of the Court to the effect that he has examined the judgment or decree, and that the same is substantially erroneous, and in what particulars." Sec. 534 provides that the appellate court may reverse or modify "in the respect mentioned in the notice, and not otherwise." Sec. 531 provides that the notice of appeal is made a part of the transcript. Held: That the notice and certificate being a part of the transcript are not amendable in this Court. That as in a pleading, so, in the notice, parties are supposed to set forth in full effect the statement of errors; that the certificate should contain a particular statement of the error alleged, and in what respect it is erroneous. It should contain a reference at least to the point in law to which error applies, and to the general points of evidence, so that the other party may not go wide of matters in controversy. There is no such particular averment in either of the first two points in certificate, and the Court will not examine this case in those respects; and attention will only be given to those matters which may properly come under the third assignment of error.

On one branch of the Madison river in Montana, the hot springs may be counted by hundreds and some of them are geysers, or spouting wells of very high temperature. The stream used to be called the Fire Hole river. The Stinking Water river derives its name from a large spring of sulphurated hydrogen near its source.

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IN BRINGING THE ABOVE-NAMED NEW REMEDY to the notice of the Public, the Proprietor begs to state a few facts in relation to it, as follows:

It originated in Prussia, where the science of Medicine is so thoroughly taught and practised, but owing to the poverty of its discoverer its wonderful properties were not known beyond the limited circle of his acquaintance, in which, however, it proved itself absolutely infallible in eradicating disease from the eyes.

He immigrated to this country, bringing his discovery with him, but seems to have been indifferent to the propriety of giving it general and wide-spread circulation, and, as previously in his native country, seemed only desirous of using it among his friends and neighbors.

The present proprietor was one of those neighbors, and for many years was a witness to its wonderful efficacy, and, after ineffectual efforts to persuade the inventor to more widely disseminate the knowledge of its virtues, finally became himself the possessor of the secret of its preparation.

And now, while he does not deny that he hopes and expects to make money by its sale, he must yet lay claim to a desire to benefit his fellows by presenting to them a remedy which does and will cure where medical science and all experience have failed.

He wishes it to be understood that it will cure all diseases of the eye, whether of recent or long standing; but its greatest power is exhibited when it is applied to old Chronic Cases of long standing, which have resisted every other attempt to cure them, and which have been given up as hopeless and past being cured or relieved.

He asks those afflicted in this way to give it a trial, and so confident is he of its success that he instructs all his agents TO REFUND THE MONEY IF IT FAILS TO CURE.

It has, within the past year, cured cases of GRANULATED LIDS, INFLAMMATION, &c., of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN and SEVENTEEN YEARS STANDING, evidence of which fact is furnished in the testimony of the following persons, living at and in the neighborhood of Harrisburg, Linn county:

ALEXANDER L. WALKER was cured of inflamed eyes, of nine years' standing. Had been treated by eminent physicians during all that time without effect

Mrs. MONTGOMERY, of Harrisburg, had inflamed eyes for over two years. For one year they were so bad that she could not work. Was finally completely cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea.

E. B. MOORE, of the firm of Moore, Garet & Raber, of Harrisburg, had granulated lids for six years.

NATHANIEL BELL, of Clackamas county, had inflamed eyes—a bad case—for over fifteen years.

ROBERT RAMPEY and W. D. PORTER, of Harrisburg; JOHN M. HOLLOWAY, of Linn County; G. R. WARD, of Lane County, were all afflicted, more or less severely, with diseased eyes, and were cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea.

All the above named persons have given lengthy testimonials to the facts as above stated, which may be seen at the proprietor's office in Harrisburg.

CARD.

DR. BARLOW J. SMITH'S WATER CURE AND Phrenological Institute, 627 Sacramento Street, San Francisco. This is the only Regular Water Cure in Francisco, where all curable diseases are treated without drugs. Dr. Smith was the first to establish a water cure on this coast, based upon the theory and practice of the New York Hydropathic College.

We have a truly healthful boarding place for men, women and children, and our prices are moderate.

The Phrenological organs plainly indicate the diseases to which any person, male or female, is predisposed.

Put this card in your hat, and when you come to San Francisco, call on Dr. Smith. He will give you consultation and a phrenological examination in regard to health. It will cost you nothing and may save you months and years of ill health and "bad luck."

Dr. Smith gives free lectures to gentlemen every Friday evening, on subjects pertaining to health, at his Phrenological Hall, 627 Sacramento Street.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary.

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his specialstudy for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and reliable mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

TO THE LADIES.

The various complicated and distressing diseases incident to females, treated with eminent success. Such as Suppressions, Irregularities, Whites, Falling of the Womb, Tumors, all Urinary Diseases, Nervous Debility, Painful, or Difficult Menstruation, Barrenness, etc., will be speedily cured, without poisonous drugs, injuries or unpalatable medicines of any kind. Have no delicacy in calling, no difference what your troubles may be. The afflicted are cordially invited to call and satisfy themselves.

Persons calling at Dr. Gibbon's office or sending for packages of medicines, may rely upon his assurances of confidential secrecy with implicit faith, and expect no more than to be charged with, a fair, and mutually satisfactory remuneration for services rendered, considering the circumstances and difficulties of cases, rather than a too prevalent and selfish practice of extortion among quacks and pretenders.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian

ESSENCE OF

JAMAICA GINGER

This valuable preparation, contains in a concentrated form, all the properties of the ginger, has become one of the most popular remedies for all diseases of the stomach and bowels.

As a tonic, it will be found invaluable to all recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise, for, while it imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it is entirely free from the reactionary effects that follow the use of spirits of any kind.

It is also an excellent remedy for females from difficult menstruation, giving almost immediate relief to the spasms that so frequently occur at that period.

It gives immediate relief to Nausea caused by riding in a railroad car, or by sea-sickness, or other causes. It is also valuable as an external application for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, etc

Sold by Druggists everywhere, and at the office of REDINGTON & CO., Agents for the Pacific Coast, San Francisco.
